1. ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This is a step-by-step guide on how to register a user account to access SPRS.

You are only required to register once to get your Short Position Reporting ID (“SPRID”). The SPRID, which is unique to each registrant, will be used for the submission of the Short Position Reporting Form through SPRS.

If you are a reporting agent reporting on behalf of short position holders, you should also register separately for an SPRID.

There are two types of SPRS user accounts – Individual and Company.

- If you are registering as an individual, please refer to section 2.1.
- If you are registering as a company, please refer to section 2.2.

2. HOW TO REGISTER FOR AN SPRS USER ACCOUNT

2.1 User Registration - Individual

Step 1. Click User Registration under REPORT POSITION in the SPRS main menu.

Step 2. Select 'User Type' as 'Individual'. See Figure 2.1-1.

NOTE

- The page will be refreshed when you switch selection between 'Individual' and 'Company'.

- c) To create a Company account at Company level, the Business Unit name should be left blank. To create a Company account at Business Unit level, the Business Unit name is mandatory. See Figure 2.2-3.

 NOTE

- For a Company account, you can choose to create the account to submit positions at either Company level or Business Unit level.
- For Company level, the reporting entity will have to aggregate all short positions as a legal entity to report as a single submission.
- For Business Unit level, each business unit of a legal entity can separately aggregate its own short positions for submission. This requires multiple user accounts to be created for the company using the same UEN but with different business unit names.
- For more information on whether to submit positions at Company level or Business Unit level, please refer to MAS’ Guidelines on Short Selling Disclosure.
